Congressman Carson To Speak At Checotah Junior High School
Will Begin His Swing Through Schools In The Area

Washington, D.C. --

Second District Congressman Brad Carson (D-OK) is slated to stop at Checotah Junior High School, Friday, January 10th for his first stop on a day of visiting schools in the area.

Congressman Carson will be speaking to classes in the Checotah Junior High school that are focusing on civics and government this semester from 9:00 am – 10:00 am.

“I am very excited to be speaking to the students of Checotah Junior High,” said Congressman Carson. “On Wednesday, President Bush signed into law the education reform bill which I supported in Congress and I thought it was only appropriate to mark this occasion by visiting some of the fine schools throughout Northeast Oklahoma.”

Throughout the day, Congressman Carson will be making stops in Muskogee, as well as Fort Gibson to speak to their government and politics classes.
